C-482 No. 826 of 2001
(Old No. 12040 of 1990)

Hon'ble Irshad Hussain, J.

None appear for the petitioners. Heard Sri A. Rab learned Additional Govt. Advocate and perused the record.

By means of this petition under section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure the summoning order dated 9-7-1990 passed on criminal complaint by the learned Magistrate has been challenged.

A bare perusal of the impugned order indicate that the learned Magistrate formed an opinion about the existence of the prima facie case against the accused of the said case on the basis of the material available on record. The complainant had also filed a prompt F.I.R. of the incident in which the order was made and the victim was criminally intimidated. Therefore there being no illegality and impropriety in the summoning order the petition is lack of merit and is hereby dismissed. The stay order dated 20-11-1990 is vacated.

It is directed that the learned Magistrate shall expedite the disposal of the criminal case no. 1001/1990 according to law.

(Irshad Hussain, J.)
